The RPS Season

We are a year-round dance studio. We do have breaks in the season. Here are a few things to remember about our calendar.

---

Inclement Weather

We have procedures in place to alert you should we encounter unsafe weather. If classes must be canceled due to weather, we'll alert you with an email, or text.

Attendance

If your child will miss a class, please notify our administrative staff by submitting it through text message to 912-856-0471

Tuition Structure

Tuition is based on class space reservation, not actual attendance. This allows us to secure a spot for your child in their selected class, ensuring continuity in their dance education.

Performances

We have multiple performances within the dance season. In cases of an upcoming performance, we may adjust the dance calendar and have extra practice in preparation for the performance.

Behavioral Expectations

Kindness Matters

At Rebecca Padgett School of Performing Arts, kindness matters. Whether between students, instructors, or students and instructors, we place a high value on being considerate, encouraging, empathetic, and respectful. That doesn't mean that every action that occurs within these walls will meet our expectations, but it is a constant we strive to attain. We want RPS to continue to be a positive center that uplifts our students, provides fun and positive experiences, practices grace (in movement and character), and offers exceptional opportunities to expand our students' worlds. We invite you to join us in that effort

Respect

At RPS we cherish the values of respect and unity within our vibrant community. We kindly ask parents to lead by example, fostering an atmosphere of mutual respect:

Respect for Others: Let's encourage our young dancers to respect their classmates, instructors, and the diverse talents within our studio. Every dancer contributes to the beauty of our collective journey.

Parent-Staff Respect: We deeply appreciate the trust you place in our staff. Kindly extend the same respect to them as they dedicate their expertise and passion to nurturing your child's love for dance.

Commitment

Regular attendance is vital to student progress and group choreography, so please make every effort to attend each class. If your child will miss a class, please contact 912-856-0471.

Honesty

Honesty is about more than telling the truth. It's about being true to ourselves in what we do, how we live, and how we relate to others. Let's keep it real with each other.

Patience

Learning new skills takes time and effort, and different movements will come to you at different times. Students may not advance to the next skill level as quickly as they hoped or at the same time as our friends.

No Bullying Zone

We have a zero-tolerance policy for bullying. If you see it, tell us. BUT please first understand the difference between conflict and bullying.

BULLYING IS:

- Reoccurring
- Deliberate
- Involves an imbalance of power

BULLYING IS NOT:

- Disliking someone
- Excluding someone
- Being bossy
- Arguing
- Accidentally hurting someone
- Making a one-time joke about someone

If bullying is occurring at Rebecca Padgett School of Performing Arts, we will swiftly address it. We have state-of-the-art cameras in every dance room to ensure a safe and conflict-free environment for students.

. We cannot, however, control children's behavior outside of our facility. If you experience a conflict with someone, go directly to that person to discuss your concerns. If the conflict cannot be resolved directly please contact your teacher or the phone line at 912-856-0471
